Story

In autumn 2017 Francisco Obieta conducted the world premiere of Urs C. Eigenmann's major work "Unzeit Gemäss" for music, poetry and dance. Two years later these two musicians met again and Francisco Obieta said that they should play together. Eigenmann immediately put this into practice with great enthusiasm. His wish had long been to form a band with flute and asked the flutist Erich Tiefenthaler, as well as his longtime friend and drummer Andy Leumann, with whom he played in various bands for many years, especially "off&out" and "Umamaca". Both immediately joined the idea of forming a band.

On 25 August 2019 the four musicians met for the first time for a rehearsal and sealed their intention to continue with Drive On. So in the foreseeable future the story can certainly be supplemented with many great events.
